BETTER MENTAL HEALTH

About Black Dog Institute

One in five of us will experience symptoms of mental illness in any given year. Research shows that roughly 60% of these people won't seek help.

As the only medical research institute in Australia to investigate mental health across the lifespan, Black Dog Institute is driven to support that 60% of the community who would not ordinarily seek help and we do that through science, compassion and action.

How to help someone

1. Ask: be supportive and ask, "are you OK?"
2. Listen: take what they say seriously let them know you care.
3. Respect: their point of view. Let them know help is available.
4. Encourage: suggest they talk to a GP, friend or relative.
5. Follow up: make a time to check in on them.
6. Take care of yourself: helping someone can be demanding.
